2. Netaji Subhash Mahavidyalaya: A Brief Profile

Netaji Subhash Mahavidyalaya is a conglomeration of approximately 3228 students, 55 regular and 22 Guest lecturers/teachers and 35 non-teaching staff. It was established by Government of Tripura on 21st September 1979 under Calcutta University and the journey began at Kirit Bikram Institution (KBI), a renowned Higher Secondary School at the heart of Udaipur town. Over the years, it has grown into an institution of modern learning. The catchment area of the college includes its adjacent agricultural and hilly region of the Gomati District and South Tripura District and neighbouring agricultural belt of the Sepahijala District. Although initially conceived merely to promote higher education among the local youth, its hinterland of student input has increased immensely during the last decade. Students today rush here to materialize their dreams with regard to choice of subjects in higher education from distant areas.

This new trend is because of the fact that the College is located adjacent to National Highway 44A. It is just near the river Gomati, the biggest river in Tripura and nearer to the Tripureshwari Temple. It is easily accessible by Bus, and Auto. Being only three kilometers journey from Udaipur Town and 48 kilometers from Agartala, the College is the first alternative to many students or any stakeholder opting for a college after any college located in Agartala. The inmates of the college provide a unique outlook. Both Bengali and Kokborok speaking families send their wards to this college. Though the College has no aristocratic aura since most of the students are from middle and lower-middle class families, yet the matchless hospitalities thrill the occasional visitors.

Netaji Subhash Mahavidyalaya is the only institution of higher education in the Udaipur Sub-Division. It is a co-educational day college located in rural area under the operational area of Matabari Rural Development Block. Initially the College was known as Udaipur Government Degree College. The college has been renamed as Netaji Subhash Mahavidyalaya (NSM) since 23rd January 1997. It has been shifted to its present location in May 1986. The College was affiliated to Tripura University (T.U.) in 1987. The College received recognition from the University Grants Commission (UGC) under 2(f) and 12(B) as Netaji Subhash Mahavidyalaya on 31st March, 2004. Communication network which happens to be very good between the College and Agartala or other parts of the State is one of the contributing factors for the rapid growth in the number of students from 35 in 1979 to 3228 students in 2014.
