A Webinar was jointly organized by the 71 Tripura Girls (I) Coy NCC units of Women’s College, Agartala and Netaji Subhas Mahavidyalaya, Udaipur on 2nd October, 2020 to observe the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. The theme of the webinar was “Swachh Bharat, Atmanirbhar Bharat: Gandhiji ke Sapno ka Bharat”. The webinar began with Welcome song “Vaishnav jan toh” by Suchitra Sen, 3rd semester English honours student of NSM, Udaipur. This was followed by Welcome address by Smt. Patriot Debbarma, Joint Coordinator of the webinar, NCC, CTO and Assistant Professor of English, Netaji Subhash Mahavidyalaya, Udaipur. The Presidential address was delivered by Smt. Manidipa Debbarma, Principal, Women’s College, Agartala. She discussed the relevance of Gandhiji for modern India as well as his emphasis on truth, non-violence, sacrifice and peace. The webinar had as resource person, Dr. Rita Das Nayak, Principal in charge and Head of Department of Geography, NSM, Udaipur. She spoke on the topic of Gandhiji’s views on non-violence. She compared Gandhiji’s ideas to an ever-flowing river. The webinar was addressed by the Officer Commanding of 71 Tripura Girls I Coy NCC, Col. Rajendra Singh. He threw light on the life and views of Gandhiji especially regarding his ideas on Swachh and Atmanirbhar Bharat which was Gandhiji’s dream for India. He also paid tribute to another great son of the soil, Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri, who shares his birth anniversary with Gandhiji. The NCC cadets of both colleges presented short speeches on Gandhiji’s views which included his economic outlook, Swadeshi movement, views on Education, views on cleanliness and service and sacrifice of Gandhiji for the Nation. The Teachers’ Council Secretary of Netaji Subhas Mahavidyalaya, Udaipur, Dr. Samir Kr. Diabagh also spoke on the occasion. The webinar ended with a brief summary of ideas presented by the speakers and vote of thanks by Ms. Ananya Sinha, Joint Coordinator as well as moderator of the webinar, NCC CTO and Assistant Professor of Economics, Women’s College, Agartala.
