Dear Colleagues,

We are glad to inform you that a National Seminar on “Reforms In Examination Pattern as envisaged in NEP 2020” is going to be held on 19th and 20th March, 2021 at Netaji Subhas Mahavidyalaya, Udaipur. We shall be delighted to have a good number of contributors, research scholars and academicians on variegated aspects of the examination and evaluation process.

About us: Netaji Subhas Mahavidyalaya, NAAC accredited college started its journey since 1979. It is located under the operational area of Tepania Rural Development Block. The college received recognition from UGC on 2004. It has grown into an institution of modern learning and its hinterland of students input has increased immensely during the last few decades. It is 48 kms from the state capital Agartala. The contribution of this institution in Higher Education sector of the state is unparalleled.

March is a hospitable month in Tripura with a pleasant temperature along with cool breeze and monsoon showers.

Aim of the Seminar: Examination has always been a spinal cord to educational system all-round the globe. Time and again many reforms have been done in the mechanism of examination having the holy purpose of compatibility with time and comprehensive development. The New Education Policy, 2020 by Union Ministry of Education, Govt. of India has also laid down a fresh framework in examination module of the country to meet the exigency of the concurrent world scenario in teaching-learning process. However, each policy has multiple gazes and counter gazes, which needs to be discussed, analyzed and made out for smooth implementation of that policy.

Keeping that idea in paraphernalia with focus Department of English, Netaji Subhas Mahavidyalaya, Udaipur, Tripura in collaboration with Higher Education Council, Govt. of Tripura is going to organize a two days’ long national seminar on ‘Reforms in Examination Pattern’. Research papers are invited from scholars, academicians, educationist from colleges and universities to submit articles/papers.
